OUR FASCINATING FAITH

Archangels Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael (September 29)

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, angels exist to glorify and serve God and to help with God's plan for salvation by cooperating with our good deeds. They can help us if we collaborate with them for the glory of God.

Our Christian tradition has designated a hierarchy of nine categories among the celestial beings whom we call angels. The seraphs are the first and the nearest to God, and the angels are the last and the nearest to human beings. Between the seraphs and angels, in order of hierarchy, are the cherubim and thrones, who together with the seraphs are dedicated to praising and loving God. The dominations, virtues, and powers are in charge of arranging the universe. Next are the principals and the archangels, who together with the angels care for and guide human beings. In this hierarchy of closeness to God, the archangels are next to last in power, although they are the most sought after because of their responsibility to care for the four cardinal points of creation. According to Hebraic tradition, there are seven archangels (Tobias 12:15) of which holy scripture mentions only three by name: Michael ("Who is like God?"), Gabriel ("strong one of God"), and Rafael ("God heals").
